

MEDIA ADVISORY

CONTACT: Roxane Marquez at (213) 974-4111 (office)
or (213) 598-5463 (cellular)

GLORIA MOLINA TO JOIN LOCAL YOUTH, ACTIVISTS IN EAST LOS ANGELES TIME CAPSULE BURIAL CEREMONY

4x6 Capsule to Contain Mementos Memorializing East L.A.'s History

EAST LOS ANGELES (January 8, 2009)—Los Angeles County Supervisor Gloria Molina will join local youth and community activists to participate in an East Los Angeles Time Capsule Burial Ceremony today at 10 a.m.

WHO: Los Angeles County Supervisor Gloria Molina
Youth from the East Los Angeles Community Youth Center
Local activists from East Los Angeles

WHAT: East Los Angeles Time Capsule Burial Ceremony

WHEN: Thursday, January 8, 2009 at 10:00 a.m.

WHERE: East Los Angeles Civic Center
(In grassy area adjacent to the East Los Angeles County Hall)
4801 East Third Street
Los Angeles, California 90012

BACKGROUND: Los Angeles County Supervisor Gloria Molina join local youth and activists today install an East Los Angeles Time Capsule. The 4x6 capsule will contain mementos memorializing the history of the East Los Angeles community from events such as the Chicano Moratorium to infrastructure milestones like the Metro Gold Line Eastside Extension. A marker will be erected at the site. Youth and staff participating in the event are all active members of the East Los Angeles Community Youth Center. The ceremony is sponsored by AT&T, Eastern Group Publications, and La Opinión.

###